

UNT Multicultural Center

Fall 2005 Event Calendar

940-565-3424 • University Union • Room 422

www.unt.edu/edo/multicultural.htm

AUGUST 2005 EVENTS

24th Wednesday 2:00 pm Multicultural Center • First Flight Week: Floats on the Fourth!
Join us in the Center for free ice cream floats to welcome all the new UNT students to the University and the Multicultural Center!

31st Wednesday 2:00 pm Multicultural Center • Howdy Week: Flip Flop to the Fourth Floor!
Flip-Flop up to the Center to meet and greet the staff, see old friends, meet some new friends, and get lots of nifty swag! Don't miss it!

SEPTEMBER 2005 EVENTS

14th Wednesday 10:00 am Library Mall & Courtyard • ¡Carnival!: Hispanic Heritage Month Kickoff
Stop by from 10:00 am -2:00 pm for fun and education as we kick off Hispanic Heritage Month with a ¡Carnival! of fun, games, exhibits, and prizes!

15th Thursday 10:00-11:30am Marquis Hall, Room #118 • Multicultural Leadership Series
Learn about Scholarships and Fellowships available to you in this presentation by Dr. James Duban, Director of the UNT Office of Postgraduate Fellowships at UNT.

17th Saturday 3:00– 5:00 pm Mean Green Village, Fouts Field • Parent and Family Weekend Multicultural Koinonia
Join us in tailgating fun and fellowship activities as we celebrate "Parent & Family Weekend before the game against Tulsa! Bring your friends!

20th Tuesday 12:00 pm Multicultural Center • Each One Teach One Multicultural Film Series
(Movie time subject to change: please call (940) 565-3424 for up-to-date information about this event.)

22nd Thursday 5:00 pm Union Room #411 • Buddy System Mentoring Program Training
What are the requirements of a mentor? Of a mentee? Come learn the ins-and-outs of the Buddy System Mentoring Program in this short and fun training session.

27th Tuesday 3:00- 4:30pm Multicultural Center • Multicultural Leadership Series
Just in time for your classes to heat up, we present "Study Skills with Joshua Adams!" Mr. Adams is the Coordinator for Learning Success Programs in the Learning Center.

28th Wednesday 2:00 pm Multicultural Center • "Challenges to the Survival of Democracy in Latin America"
UNT Political Science Professor Dr. John A. Booth speaks about the challenges to democracy in Mexico, Central America, and the Andean countries, such as globalization, corruption, and crime.

29th Thursday 5:00 pm Union Syndicate • Buddy System Mentoring Program Mixer
Mix and mingle with your Buddy! Buddy System Participants are invited to enjoy pizza, karaoke, games, and fun to kick off the semester.

OCTOBER 2005 EVENTS

4th Tuesday 3:00– 4:00 pm UNT Career Center Room 320 University Union • Multicultural Leadership Series
Join us for "Choosing a Major and a Career" presented by Senta Thomas, UNT Career Center Assistant Director.

5th Wednesday 12:00 pm Multicultural Center • Each One Teach One Multicultural Film Series
(Movie time subject to change: please call (940) 565-3424 for up-to-date information about this event.)

8th Saturday 9:00 am– 5:00 pm Union Golden Eagle Suite • 1st Annual Asian/Pacific American Empowerment Conference
Students from multiple Texas universities gather to discuss issues relating to Asian/Pacific American identity. Topics include: activism, stereotypes, and community building!

11th Tuesday 7:00 pm– 9:00 pm Union Golden Eagle Suite • 16th Annual ¡Celebración! Hispanic Heritage Banquet
Join us for food, fun, and fiesta celebrating Hispanic Heritage, featuring guest speaker Arnold Velez, president of Clear Channel DFW. Tickets available at the Center!

12th Wednesday 12:00 pm Multicultural Center • Introduction to the Greek Orthodox Christian Church
UNT student Billy King presents an interesting and informative presentation on the faith of the Greek Orthodox Christian Church. Don't miss this informative program!

14th Friday 8:00 am– 4:00 pm Union Silver Eagle Suite • 16th Annual Hispanic Friends of UNT Conference
Reaching La Raza: Catering to the Future; Featuring guest speaker activist Dolores Huerta. Visit www.unt.edu/edo for details. Register now for this important event!

18th Tuesday 3:00– 4:00 pm Multicultural Center • "Mexicanos, Chicanos, and Bilingual Education"
Dr. Mariela Nuñez-Janes, UNT Assistant Professor of Anthropology and Co-Director of Ethnic Studies, discusses the prevalent and ongoing issue of bilingual education.

19th Wednesday 1:00– 2:00 pm Multicultural Center • Multicultural Leadership Series
Want to see the world? Join us for "Study Abroad Opportunities and Scholarships" presented by Valerie Borgfield, Assistant Director, UNT Study Abroad Center.

29th Saturday 3:00– 5:30 pm Mean Green Village Fouts Field • Multicultural Alumni Tailgating at the Homecoming Game
Any interested alumni meet in the Mean Green Village Multicultural Center ... tent for refreshments and fun! Tailgating from 3-5:30pm; game starts at 6pm!

NOVEMBER 2005 EVENTS

2nd Wednesday 3:00- 4:00 pm Multicultural Center • Multicultural Leadership Series
Join us for the final installment of the Fall 2005 Multicultural Leadership Series, "Student Organizational Development", presented by Texas Woman's University's Office of Intercultural Services Program Coordinator Ke'Ana Hardy. Don't miss it!

8th Tuesday 12:00 pm Multicultural Center • Each One Teach One Multicultural Film Series: Double Feature!
Warpaint and Wigs, 1979, 29 min.: Explores the effect created by Hollywood stereotyping on Native American actors, and How Hollywood Wins the West, 1979, 29 min., which points out the historical inaccuracies in film regarding U.S. westward expansion.

11th Friday 1:00 pm Multicultural Center • Native American Discussion Program
Native American Alumni of UNT, Gerald Jimmy Jr., presents his original program, "American Indian, Native American, and Other Questions You May Have", an audience interactive, question and answer-based program. Gerald Jimmy is a teacher at the West Dallas Reconnection Center in the Dallas Independent School District. Mr. Jimmy is 1/2 Shoshone, 1/4 Cherokee, and 1/4 Choctaw.

22nd Tuesday 12:00 pm Multicultural Center • Each One Teach One Multicultural Film Series: Double Feature!
Heathen Injuns and the Hollywood Gospel, 1979, 28 min.: this film criticizes Hollywood's misreporting and complete manufacturing of Native American religious beliefs; and The Movie Reel Indians, 1979, 28 min.: examines the effect that stereotypes have on Native Americans themselves.