

Fifth Annual SAR/DAR Flag Retirement and Honor Our Veterans Ceremony
