August 4, 2005

Dear Mr. Principi,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

The Honorable Anthony J. Principi
Chairman, 2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
August 4, 2005

Dear General Hill,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

General James T. Hill, USA (R)
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
Dear Mr. Coyle,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

The Honorable Philip Coyle
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
August 4, 2005

Dear Mr. Bilbray,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

The Honorable James H. Bilbray
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
August 4, 2005

Dear Admiral Gehman,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

Admiral Harold W. Gehman, Jr., USN (R)
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
August 4, 2005

Dear General Turner,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

Brigadier General Sue E. Turner, USAF (R)
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
August 4, 2005

Dear Mr. Hansen,

The task given to the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

The Honorable James V. Hansen
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
August 4, 2005

Dear General Newton,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

General Lloyd W. Newton, USAF (R)
2005 Defense Base Closure
and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202
Dear Mr. Skinner,

The task given the other members of the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission is a monumental one with implications for many years to come.

The decision made to create a Netfires Center at Fort Sill, Oklahoma was made by the Army Chief of Staff well prior to the BRAC consideration process.

As the former Fort Sill Commanding General from 1997-1999 I can assure you that Fort Sill can readily accept the mission of integrating the Air Defense Center and School, which will complete the vision which General Schoomaker has published regarding net-centric fires.

The decision is sound, rational, cost effective and should be allowed to stand.

Sincerely,

Leo J. Baxter
MG, USA (R)

The Honorable Samuel K. Skinner
2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission
2521 S. Clark Street, Suite 600
Arlington, VA 22202