Wednesday, December 19, 2001 5:05 PM Visitor Guide advertising opportunity

I want to take this time to let you know about a great advertising opportunity in the Denton Visitor Guide. In April 2002 the guide is getting a new look, and you have a chance to advertise in 4-color on the inside or back covers of the guide. The new cover will be a 4-color glossy format with a heavier paper weight and the inside will remain the same with news print pages.

Your ad will be in the guide each quarter for an entire year. The circulation is 64,000 a year to hotels. motels, restaurants, B&B's, retail stores, major festivals/events and conferences in Denton. It is also distributed to travel/visitor information centers in Denton, the Metroplex and throughout the state. The Denton Visitor Guide is also widely used by new residents and realtors.

Space is limited. Reservation for space is due by Monday, January 7, 2002 and materials are due by Friday, January 18, 2002. The rates are as follows:

Back-cover, full page, 4-color - $2,700 total for 4 quarterly issues Inside front-cover, full page, 4-color - $2,200 total for 4 quarterly issues Inside back-cover, half-page, 4-color - $1,250 total for 4 quarterly issues

Please contact me if you have any further questions about advertising in the new Visitor Guide glossy, color cover, or if you would like to see a sample of the type of cover. Thanks. Christine

Comments: Hello,

I wanted to let you all know about some opportunities to promote your property. First, the Texas Travel Industry Association is hosting the Unity Dinner in Austin, TX on March 7 & 8. The association hosts this dinner for legislatures each year to let them know how important the tourism industry is in Texas. The event features a Silent Auction and gives cities a chance to showcase their attractions and accommodations by donating to the auction. Items can include overnight stays, merchandise, collectibles and other great tourism packages and experiences. This is a good way to let others in the industry, and our legislatures, know what we have to offer in the Denton area. If you are interested in contributing to a Denton Area package, please let me know by Jan. 25 via fax or e-mail. I will need to know what it is you are giving and the value.

Secondly, I want to let you know that our Visitor Guide will have a new look. In April the new cover of the Denton Visitor Guide will be a glossy, magazine style paper, four color. There is one ad space available on the inside, back-cover. The ad is a ½ page and the rate is $1,250. The difference between this ad and the inside ads is that it will be in the Visitor Guide April 2002 through March 2003. The interior ads for the Visitor Guide will still be sold quarterly by the Denton Record-Chronicle. The CVB distributes 64,000 copies of this publication each year. If you want to purchase this ad space, please let me know by Thursday, Jan. 24. Ads must be camera-ready and are due by Feb. 1.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

What is there to do in Denton? EVERYTHING:

Do you like music, horses, history, theatre, sporting events ... or just want to shop 'til you drop? Then Denton has plenty of fun things for you to do. It offers a wide slate of historical buildings and neighborhoods, museums, restaurants, parks, shopping, bed & breakfast lodgings, galleries, outdoor recreational offerings and marvelous cultural opportunities.

Denton is a meeca for music and art enthusiasts. World-class art and music programs at the University of North Texas (UNT) and Texas Woman's University (TWU) inspire outstanding performances in a wide variety of venues. Take in a local festival featuring "nuclear polka" music by renowned band Brave Combo or a jazz concert by UNT's world-famous One O'Clock Lab Band. Outstanding theatre productions are on-going in the beautifully restored Campus Theater just off the historic town square, as well as both universities theaters and performance halls.

Known for its "one-of-a-kind collections," Benton offerings range from pecan figurines to rare books. If you're into fashion, TWU has the First Ladies of Texas collection of Golden Triangle Mall also offers regowns. Located in the Courthouse- gional shopping with all your faon-the-Square Museum, the Pecan Art exhibit is a unique collection of whimsical characters from Elvis to President Clinton - made out of pecans. Explore the fourth floor of UNT's Wiffis Library to view the Rare Book and Texana Collections containing limited editions, antique books and manuscripts, rare maps and unusual miniature tomes, extensive collection of vintage dolls Early Texas artifacts and records of can be viewed. Experience early Texas life by staying in a historic bed & breakfast, strolling through the Oak-Hickory Historic District and browsing in the 100-year old Denton County Courthouse-on-the-Square Museum. See a collection of 18th-century guns, early-American pressed glass and an seum, learn about Denton's most colorful characters and see farm tools. pioneering Denton farmers and If you like to "shop 'til you drop", ranchers. Replicas of an early 19thcentury kitchen and bedroom evoke the simple lifestyle of long ago. To name buys to antiquing, you'll learn about the history of aviation, stop by Hangar 10 Flying Museum at Beaton Municipal Airport to view vintage aircraft.

For the sports enthusiast, Denton County has the 150,000 seat Texas Motor Speedway for NASCAR and IRL racing and events throughout the year. Or, take in outstanding NCAA Division 1 sporting events year round at UNT or women's intercollgiate athletics at TWU.

The outdoorsman is also in for a treat with Ray Roberts Lake, a wonderful outdoor camping, hiking, boating and fishing retreat. State parks, outfitted with the latest in facilities, make Ray Roberts a wonderful weekend destination. Considered one of Texas' finest fishing lakes, Ray Roberts Lake is fast becoming Denton's most popular attraction. You can also enjoy horseback riding, biking, hiking, canocing or kayaking along the 12mile Greenbelt Trail.

As you can see, Benton's charm is derived from its vast diversity of interests. So no matter what your interest, you'll find good food, fun, festivals, cultural events and friendly folks drawing you back to Denton time and time again.

Christine Gossett Denton CVB PO Drawer P Denton, TX 76202

Dear Christine:

It's that time of year again! Travel Holiday invites Denton CVB to participate in a special advertising section in April 2002. Travel Holiday is partnering with the Texas Department of Tourism to produce "A Texas Tapestry." This special cooperative section will highlight adventures and destinations that are unique to the Lone Star State.

Advertising in one of the fastest-growing magazines in the U.S., Denton CVB will reach over 1.8 million passionate travel enthusiasts who read Travel Holiday to plan their next trip. The Texas Special advertising section will provide excellent exposure and entice readers to visit Denton.

With rates from 40-60-% off the open rate card and bonus advertorial coverage with in the section, this is an opportunity not to be missed!

Space is closing for this special section is January 25.

Please see enclosed for special discounted rates for Texas partners as well as a copy of how the section appeared in April 2001.

All the best,

Denton Visitors Guide

Hi.

This is what I have from the meeting. Please let me know if you have any changes. I will do the schedule for the next three editions of the Visitors Guide once we have approved this schedule. If I have forgotten anything, or there is a correction, please let me know and I will get revises to everyone.

I'll get the color grid sheets shortly.

Thanks, Sandra
