Tiffany Floyd
Art History
College of Visual Arts and Design

Dr. Nada Shabout
Art History
College of Visual Arts and Design
The Veiled Icon:
National Geographic’s Representation of
The Women of Islam

By
Tiffany Floyd
“A Talk About Persia and Its Women,” Ella Sykes
October 1910

“Along the Nile Through Egypt and the Sudan,”
Frederick Simpich / October 1922 / Old Cairo
“A Journey to Three Arab Kingdoms: Transjordania, Iraq, and the Hedjz Present Many Problems to European Powers,”
Junius B. Wood / May 1923
Haifa

Qairowan, Tunisia / 1911
“Afghanistan’s Uneasy Peace,” Richard Mackenzie
October 1993 / Photographs by Steve McCurry

“Eyewitness Afghanistan,”
Edward Girardet
December 2001
Photograph by Michael Yamashita

Kabul, Afghanistan / 1968
Photograph by Thomas Abercrombie
Tripoli, Libya / 2000
Photograph by Reza

Kohat, Pakistan / 1960’s or 70’s ?

Tarut Island in Saudi Arabia Jodi Cobb / 1987

“The Sword and the Sermon,” Thomas Abercrombie / July 1972 Photograph by Abercrombie Afghanistan
“Eyewitness Afghanistan,”
Edward Girardet
December 2001
Afghanistan

“This Year in Jerusalem,”
Joseph Judge
April 1983 / Photograph
by Jodi Cobb
Jerusalem

“The Arab World, Inc.,”
John J. Putman / October
1975
United Arab Emirate